Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
and after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
From tho' from out our bourn of time and place
The flood may bear mr far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

God Saw You

God saw the road was getting rough,

The hills were hard to climb;

So He gently closed those loving eyes

And whispered " Peace be thine."

The weary hours, the days of pain,

The sleepless nights are passed;

The ever-loving, patient, worn out frame,

Has found sweet rest at last.
